

Why Pinecrest Studios?

Owned and operated by Jess Anthony Smith, founder of Historic Pinecrest

Having photographed over a thousand weddings at Pinecrest alone, and over one million pictures, to say Jess is comfortable with capturing the essence of your wedding here or anywhere for that matter is an understatement at best.

As testimonials on our website convey, Jess and his team are masters at putting everyone at ease so as to allow the day to unfold in the most natural atmosphere possible. It is only then that true to life images are possible. And at the end of the day it seems that the images most appreciated are the ones you could not have planned for if you had tried.

Most anyone can take a picture, few can make it truly memorable.

If you permit us the HONOR of photographing your day, we can promise you that nothing is left to chance.

Additionally Jess is a rarity in his trade, wherein 10 years ago he insisted on giving clients full reproduction rights of all the images. This is something that other professionals are now starting to recognize as the "right thing" to do.

Going hand in hand with music is video. We have come to believe that 75% of video is audio since without it or with poor audio quality the video is hardly worth watching. With all the aspects that come with every wedding, having 3 separate sound track options is key in providing a quality yet affordable end product. Relying on totally separate sound tracks permits us to get great sound from the music, the minister and the bride and groom. Between the digital voice recorders, wireless mics and ambient sound tracks all aspects of sound are covered. Providing a video of the wedding will help brides and grooms relive their wedding day over and over again as well as share it with generations to come. Having a great sound track will truly make the difference between wondering what they said and knowing what they whispered!
